

GenFed Federal Credit Union Privacy Notice

GenFed Federal Credit Union is owned by its members and run by a board of directors you elect. You can be confident that your financial privacy is a top priority of this credit union. We are required by law to give you this privacy notice to explain how we collect, use and safeguard your personal financial information. If you have any questions, please contact a member service representative at your local branch.

GenFed Federal Credit Union collects nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms
- Information about your transaction with us or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

We are committed to providing you with competitive products and services designed to meet your financial needs, which necessitates that we share information about you to complete your transactions and to provide you with certain financial opportunities. In order to do so, we have entered into privacy agreements with carefully selected, credible companies that provide either services to us or additional financial products for you to consider.

We may disclose all of the information we collect as described above to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

We may also disclose information we collect about you under other circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union (sometimes utilizing independent auditors), follow your instructions, or protect the security of our financial records.

GenFed Federal Credit Union restricts access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who have a specific business purpose for using it. Our employees are trained on the importance of maintaining confidentiality and member privacy. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations and leading industry practices to safeguard your nonpublic personal information.

GenFed Federal Credit Union continues to develop new and exciting opportunities for our members. As such, we reserve the right to disclose nonpublic personal information (such as information we receive from you on applications or other forms) to financial service providers.
